9780099518075, Arrow Books, 2008

Sam Holden's hilarious exploits as a hapless househusband continue as Growing Pains of a Hapless Househusband chronicles the next year in the life of the Holden family. Sam has largely reconciled himself with the trials and tribulations of being a stay-at-home dad, but that hardly means settling down to sweet and simple family life. Things start to get exciting when his infamous Holden Childcare Programme goes national via SuperManny, a successful parenting TV show hosted by Sam himself (successful despite the fact that he has to resort to bribing his young contestants to behave and getting watertight non-disclosure agreements from the parents). Sam is so busy trying to manage his new public image as a superdad with some semblance of grace and dignity that he isn't quite up to defending the front lines of his home life. As his marriage copes with renewed onslaughts from Jodhpur Mum and Sally's professional life is taking a severe battering, things slowly start spiraling out of control...
